Sophia's Galactic Affiliations

As multi-dimensional beings, we have the ability to exist in many different expressions. At times, we may spend one or more lifetimes off planet Earth, residing instead on another star system, galaxy or planet. We all come from Source ... originating from the same beginning point. During our continual expansion, we affiliate with groups of souls, or aspects of Divine expression, often with common interests or projects. These groups are seen as "soul family" or "pods" that we travel through time and space with, sharing experiences in specific locations or dimensions. When I asked for any such affiliations for you, I was given the following information:

You have connections to Arcturus.

<http://www.celestialsources.com>

Arcturus is a type K1.5 IIIpe orange giant star — the letters "pe" stand for "peculiar emission," which indicates that the spectrum of light given off by the star is unusual and full of emission lines. This is not too uncommon in red giants, but Arcturus has a particularly strong case of the phenomenon. It is at least 110 times visually more luminous than the Sun, but this underestimates its strength as much of the "light" it gives off is in the infrared; total power output is about 180 times that of the Sun. The lower output in visible light is due to a lower efficacy as the star has a lower surface temperature than the Sun.

Arcturus is that which may be called the center of this universe, through which individuals pass and at which period there comes the choice of the individual as to whether it is to return to complete in this planetary system, our Sun, and its planetary system - or to pass on to others. This was an unusual step, and yet a usual one. (Edgar Cayce)

Arcturus is believed to be one of the first stars named by ancient observers. It is translated as "Guardian of the Bear" and is a name that was once used for the entire constellation of Bootes. It is easily found by noting that the curve of the handle of the Big Dipper is part of a circle - an arc - and we can just follow the arc to Arcturus.

Arcturus was one of the spheres designated as a teaching planet. This also included the further research of the space harmonics. Some of the greatest teachers and some Avatars whose place of origin is Arcturus now have converged on the Earth star planet. Arcturians possess great integrity and stupendous energy for correcting mistruths and false beliefs that are so prevalent in this world. Arcturus is a 5th Dimensional culture designed as a template for Earth's future expressions. The Arcturian culture is based upon the understanding that the gateway to 5th dimensional awareness is the experience of love. Their starships often monitor events on Earth and through telepathic transmissions they offer assistance in inspiring the discovery of advanced healing techniques that affect all layers of the energy body. There is no disease in their world, and they often live the equivalent of 400 Earth years.

Arcturians are well developed mentally, emotionally, and intuitively. Arcturians are intelligent and well read about the topic they are interested in. They are analytical and fully capable of making a strong argument about it. At the same time, Arcturians are very selective in using their intellect and they have no opinion about the topics that they are not interested in.

When Arcturians express themselves about the things they feel strongly about, they are not only intellectually well prepared but they also utilize the power of emotions and brilliant insights. This way, they offer valuable perspectives to this world.

While Arcturians are compassionate and forgiving, they are also very sensitive, so they often feel hurt and offended. News of social injustice breaks their heart. And many Arcturians become vegetarians primarily for compassionate reason. Of course, this compassionate yet sensitive nature defines their social life as well.

In terms of romantic relationship, it all depends on whether they can find an appropriate mate. Being the Arcturian's partner is a tall order. Not that they are demanding, but you can sense they are special. When they do find a good partner, they are one of the happiest in partnership. Their partnership is more about friendship than conventional marital bond.

With their brilliance and mature interpersonal skill, Arcturians are capable of achieving high goals. They are not that interested in worldly success. For Arcturians, spiritual growth and spending time with their loved ones are far more important than climbing a step higher in the corporate ladder. In fact, the whole idea of working in the corporate structure is ridiculous for Arcturians. Many Arcturians start their own business and achieve just the right amount of success they aim.

Healing, both conventional healthcare and alternative healing, is one of the popular career choices among Arcturians. And even when they are not in such career, they often find others reaching out to them to be healed. Those distressed people can sense the special quality Arcturians are emitting. The only possible problem for Arcturians' career life is when they sabotage themselves by internalizing the negativity in the collective consciousness. There are many thought-forms floating around such as negative beliefs about money and wealth.

Suggestions for Meditation and Connecting to Arcturian Energies:

Find a quiet space where you can spend at least 30 minutes uninterrupted, and create a comfortable environment for sitting in stillness.

Play some music that enhances a meditative state.
